

PERCOGRAM... The Official Newsletter of the Pittsburgh East Rotary Club

Wow, it's good to be back and writing the PERCOGRAM after a three month hiatus. I hope this finds everyone well and ready to forge forth this fall with many community happenings.

President Leslie Patterson: President Leslie's term began on July 01, 2004 and we're more than please to have her leading PERC into our 60th Anniversary, and Rotary International into it's Centennial Anniversary. Leslie's carrying the torch and leading the way with a big smile and spunk!

New Home: Due to physical changes at Vintage Senior Center, our club was no longer able to hold weekly meetings at their facility. On July 01, 2004 we moved to our new home at the Pittsburgh Center for the Arts (Corner of 5th & Shady Avenues/Shadyside)

The center gave us a warm welcome and is more than pleased to have us meeting there on a weekly basis. We will soon have the centers new Executive Director, Charlie Humphrey, speak to us and give a tour of the facility. The Pittsburgh Center for the Arts is a bright and active organization where we hope to blossom and grow during our 60th year serving the East End of Pittsburgh. If you're not a member and would like to join us sometime, please feel free to do so any Wednesday or call Tom Reiling @ 412.661.7566 x11 to schedule a time. We meet every Tuesday at 12:15 at the Pittsburgh Center for the Arts.

Web Site: Member Eric Davis, President of ePowerApps.com, recently completed a major contribution to our club of our own web site. It's up and active and extremely incredible. Please visit: www.pittsburgheastrotary.org to see what he and a few others at ePowerApps.com have created for us. Thank you Eric for a very hip site that captures so much of the personality of our club!

Dan Hudock?: Who's that? Find out by attending the next meeting of the Pittsburgh East Rotary Club on Tuesday, October 12, 2004.

Interact Club: Interact Committee is excited to report that this years Interact Club at Peabody High School is up and active and running with flying colors! Stan Spear and Helene Prince report that 16 high school kids attended last months meeting and that a group is going to the District Interact Conference this month. Thank you everyone for all your work and efforts in making this work. We look forward to hearing about the conference.

International: PERC's International Committee and the PERC Foundation report that we've been receiving funds from the Fox Chapel Presbyterian Church ear-marked for the TLC Orphanage in South Africa. This is part of the happenings with Dana Gold, Cecilia Wandiga, and Ed Fink and the Orphan Train Project. Please check out web site for more information and a link to the orphanage web site: www.pittsburgheastrotary.org

Pancakes r' US! As everyone knows, Pancake Breakfast time is quickly approaching. It's always the first Saturday of every November meaning that this year it's on November 6th at Vintage Senior Center. If you'd like to make a donation of items for the Auction or would like to be a sponsor or know of someone who would, please feel free to contact me or any PERC member.

Okay... that's all for now. Thank you for checking the PERCOGRAM and we look forward to seeing you at this weeks PERC meeting.

Sincerely,

Tom Reiling
Immediate Past PERC President
